BEFORE AND AFTER CHRISTMAS

you will find our store headquarters for all that is good in Stationery. Before Christmas, which is now, it will pay you to see the pretty things we have for gifts. There is everything you would expect to find in a and more. It would take too long to tell of their beauty and usefulness. So just come in and look around for yourself. There will be nothing about our prices to cause you.

SIRENS AND SONS.

Mayor George R. McClellan of New York is just thirty-nine years old.

William S. Boothby of Cornish, Me., has a file of the old Robert B. Thomas almanac from 1811 to the present time.
Luther Conant, Jr., for years financial editor of the New York Journal of Commerce, has been appointed a special examiner in the bureau of corporations, department of commerce and labor.

Sir William Macdonald, the wealthy tobacco manufacturer of Montreal, will establish a large agricultural college in St. Anne, a few miles distant from Montreal, at an outlay exceeding $1,000,000.

Lucius Tuttle, now president of the Boston and Maine railroad, was the first man to hold the title of "passenger traffic agent." It was bestowed upon him by President Van Horne of the Canadian Pacific railway.

Dr. Charles A. Eastman, the educated Sioux Indian, has finished his allotment role of the Sioux and has grouped the tribe under appropriate family names. He was commissioned to do this work by President Roosevelt.

Patrick Keerwin of Seward, Westmoreland county, Pa., the oldest voter in the United States, cast his twenty-first presidential ballot for Parker and Davis. He is 107 years, 8 months and 1 day old and takes the same keen interest in politics today as he did fifty years ago.

Chief Justice Melville W. Fuller of the supreme court of the United States, plans, it is said, to resign his office on March 5, 1905. Chief Justice Fuller will be seventy-two years old on Feb. 11, 1905, and will then be entitled to retire from the bench and enjoy a salary of $10,500 a year as long as he lives.

Levi M. Poor of Augusta, Me., was in command of the smallest company for the longest time of all officers in the civil war. He was in Company D of the Nineteenth Maine, and for forty-three days had only one man—John White of Belfast—all the others being absent by sickness, death, wounds or removals. Ex-Governor Conner of Maine, who was then in command of the regiment, made him acting lieutenant of the company.

THINGS THEATRICAL.

Louise Gunning has retired from the cast of Mme. Schumann-Heink's "Love's Lottery," as she has decided not to play outside of New York.

Millie Murray will spend next week at her home prior to beginning rehearsals in New York city, having left "The Sultan of Sulu" company in Memphis, Tenn.

A report comes from New York that when William Morris quits "The Cingalee" he will go into vaudeville, presenting an original sketch. Mr. Morris was last seen in "Babes in Toyland."

Marjorie Drewe has been engaged to play the name part in "The Female Drummer," in which Johnstone Bennett starred several seasons ago. It is to be revived by Charles Blaney and sent on the road.

Miss Mary Alsop Cryder has arranged to provide a novel attraction for musicals, concerts, etc. "Le Cantori Napolitani" is the name of the new organization, and the object is to give Neapolitan songs and music.

Richard Carle and H. L. Henz, who wrote "The Tenderfoot," have completed a new comic opera entitled "The Hairy Gird Girl," and it will have its first production in New York. Mr. Carle will have the chief comedy role.

UNIVERSAL PEACE.

Mexico has signified her desire to enter into a treaty of arbitration with the United States. The day of universal arbitration treaties may not be far off, and when it comes the era of universal peace is not so remote—Atlanta Constitution.

It may be accepted as a fact that until arbitration is firmly established and the strong nations accept its results against them and in favor of weak nations the lion and the lamb will sleep together only when the lamb is inside his bedfellow.—San Francisco Call.

This republic and Great Britain are setting the pace for arbitration without war as opposed to arbitration after war. Both countries will do well to set the example while they set the pace. The example will quicken the pace, and the pace or the disposition will be wonderfully assisted by the example.—Brooklyn Eagle.

"USONA."

Perhaps it may not be impertinent to suggest that Sir Edward Clarke abbreviate his own name instead of ours.—Boston Herald.

"Usona" stands for "United States of North America," but it is doubtful whether the United States of North America will stand for "Usona"—Chicago Journal.

If we tried to narrow the word America down to mean merely part of America there might be some ground for criticism, but the word American by common usage, fostered by the existence of other names for other peoples, has become specific.—New York Tribune.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.

All the people of the south need or want is a "square deal." They ask no odds, no special privilege or license to hold up other sections of the country.—Galveston News.

The fact that the population has increased in the south more than 60 per cent is not of as much consequence as the improvement in the character of the immigration in that district.—Pittsburg Gazette.

Don't Eat Drugs

Better Take the Food Cure.

Most diseases arise from defective blood or from a disordered or exhausted nervous system. Dr. Chase's Blood and Nerve Food is the most effective blood builder and nerve vitalizer. It restores blood integrity and nerve strength. All forms of nervous debility, exhaustion or prostration are cured by this greatest of all restoratives. Even long-standing cases and advanced stages of physical relaxation and vital decline, the various results of over-taxation, excesses or violations of the laws of health, are quickly cured by this best of all strengtheners and vitalizers. It is the surest known preventive and curative of mental-fag, brain-break, spine-ache, nerve-weak, and all manner of general or special debility. It enriches the blood, feeds, fortifies and vitalizes the nerves; regulates, sustains and strengthens all natural functions. It is the hope and prop of the weak and discouraged, the restoration of the chronically ill. Under its influence, hope and ambition revive, courage comes, energy and strength develop. Price 50 cents. Book free.

Sold and guaranteed by E. A. Drown.

A Promising Engagement.

The Marks Brothers' company, which is considered one of the most perfect of the repertoire organizations, will open its week's engagement with Thursday and Saturday matinees at the Barre opera house tonight with the great comedy drama "The Duke's Daughter." The production will be given as near complete as the most advanced stage management can devise. The company in itself is made up of clever people, headed by May A. Bell Marks, who is considered the most talented as well as the most magnetic leading lady playing at popular prices. Her successes in the roles made famous by many of our foremost actresses during the past few years, was so marked that she has received special comment throughout the entire country. The strength of the company, many bright specialties, the grand scenic effects, together with the choice selections of plays, should make the engagement one of decided interest. It has been the object of Marks Brothers to provide a series of productions which equal each other in strength and to make them as complete as possible. The great comedy drama, "The Duke's Daughter" will be the opening bill tonight with all special scenery and electrical effects. Ladies' tickets 15 cents tonight if bought at the advance sale before 6 p. m. tonight. Seats on sale at the Red Cross Pharmacy.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

If you are cold or thirsty just call at the Brick Block and try M. J. Drury's new drinks, ginger, coffee and chocolate, beef, clam bouillon, tomato bouillon, tomato soup, etc.

Next Thursday, Dec. 15, the gentlemen of the Universalist society will give a ball at the town hall. House's orchestra will furnish music. Dancing from 8 p. m. to 2 a. m. A good supper will be served. Full bill $1.00.

ORANGE.

The ladies of the Congregational church will hold a sale at the town hall Tuesday, December 13. Refreshments will be furnished by them consisting of doughnuts, sandwiches, coffee, etc., and everybody is invited.

Dancing Lessons.

D. F. Morgan, teacher of dancing and deportment, wishes to announce to the people of Barre that he will commence a school for beginners in ballroom dancing. Waltz and two step will be the first work taken up. He will also have a class for juveniles and will teach all kinds of steps and ballroom dancing. Have a number of pupils who are professional dancers on the stage in the United States and Europe. Further particulars can be had by calling any night after seven o'clock at 10 Ayers street. Come early and get your name enrolled, as I shall have only a small class. 16
